I Need Shoes!

I'm a pedestrian, so shoes are important to me - not that I have a large selection. I have a very small selection of high quality shoes. Currently looking for awesome, appealing and versatile boots.

Any suggestions?

After looking for several hours at four different shoes shops today - and realizing that right now, no one is carrying boots, I've given up hope for the "real world" shops. I won't find what I need right now.

But I know from experience that shopping online for footwear is... painful. As long as it takes me to search in a shop for shoes I want, it's worse if my limit to options is - well, unlimited. Online shoe shops carry everything.

So please, if you have a pair of excellent boots you'd like to recommend I try - PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE send me some information! Just comment below, or send me an email.
